Don’t Have To Be

For you to be right
I don’t have to be wrong.

For sky to be blue
Earth doesn’t have to be red.

For living together in harmony
Creed, caste and colour
Don’t have to be one and the same.

For knowing and rearing
One’s identity
We don’t have to quarrel and squabble
With each other.

We could both be
Wrong or right
At the same time
Earth doesn’t have to stop for that.

Neither wrong is wrong in itself
Nor right is right in itself
It doesn’t have to be
That
Wrong is not right
And
Right is not wrong.

For you and me
To live in peace and harmony
Whatever is required
That has to be right
And nothing else but right.
