This is a page from a craft guide. The page contains instructions on how to make a model of a house using cardboard boxes and paper. The text is partially obscured, but it appears to be about creating a scene with the boxes to represent a home environment. The instructions include preparing the boxes, coloring, and arranging them to create a scene. The text is in a natural, conversational style, and it is likely part of a larger project on crafting and modeling.

If you don't have a sewing machine, you can still make these coasters by hand. First, you will need:

- 2 small cork squares
- 2 knitting needles
- String
- Whipped paper or colored paper or fabric
- An empty cereal box

1. Sewing Box

   - Cut a strip of cardboard 2 inches wide and long enough to go around the box. Place this strip on top of the box to form a base.
   - Cut a circle of cardboard and a piece of fabric to fit the bottom of the box. Glue the fabric to the cardboard and wrap it around the box, overlapping the ends. Secure it with a ribbon or a piece of string.
   - Place the box inside the Sewing Box and secure it with a ribbon or string.

2. Coasters

   - Cut a piece of cardboard and a piece of fabric to fit the size of the coaster. Glue the fabric to the cardboard and wrap it around the coaster, overlapping the ends. Secure it with a ribbon or a piece of string.

3. Instructions for Using the Sewing Box

   - Once you have cut the cardboard and fabric, place the coasters inside the Sewing Box. Secure them with a ribbon or string.

   - When you are finished, the coasters will be securely held in place. To use, simply pull out the coasters and use them when needed.

Punch 12 holes along the radii of the paper plates about 1 cm apart.

Place one hole in the center of each paper plate. Glue these paper plates to a cardboard tube, center to center and edge to edge of the holes, so that the holes line up.

The cardboard tube should be about 30 cm long. You can make it longer by gluing more tubes together.

When assembling the tube, you should have at least 10 holes. The tube can be as long as is possible, until the rim is all covered with the cardboard tube.

Paint a large paper plate a nice color. When it is dry give two coats of clear lacquer coating the whole thing from the bottom of the tube to the top of the rim. Keeping the sticks in place, wind the wood around the cardboard until it is all covered.

INK AND PAPER

Place the print on a flat surface, such as a table or floor. Spread the ink evenly on the surface, making sure it covers the entire printing area.

PEEL AND PRINT

Carefully remove the paper from the print, being careful not to damage the ink or the design. The print should come away cleanly from the paper.

CHECK AND REWORK

Inspect the print to ensure that it is clear and free of defects. Make any necessary adjustments before printing again.

USE FOR OTHER PROJECTS

The printed paper can be used for a variety of projects, such as making a copybook, a scrapbook, or a greeting card.

TIPS AND TRICKS

- Use a light touch when printing to avoid smudging the ink.
- Experiment with different inks and papers to achieve different effects.
- Consider using a light box for easier printing. Timeline:
