To make a snow globe you will need a jar and tin foil.

You can create your Christmas scene on the lid of your jar.

Fill the jar with water, carefully screw the cap onto the jar. Some water will spill over the sides, but that is good as it makes sure there is no air inside your snow globe!

Once the lid is on tight, shake it up...

...and watch it snow.

It's great when kids make their own toys!